ANNUAL MEETING - LUNCHEON Peoria Civic Center

In 2010, we're all stepping up to make sure Central Illinois thrives again. We're working harder and working smarter. We're being flexible, innovative and creative. You can step up too!

“I’m Stepping Up” is a movement in the Peoria Metro Region designed to give people an outlet to share the positive things they are doing. During the recession people were afraid to share their positive stories, but now it’s time to starting talking about the good things we have in this region again.
